

Agenda:
Thursday, September 26

Opioids Through a Population Health Lens

7:00 – 8:00am	Breakfast
8:00 – 8:15am	Welcome – Carmen Nevarez, MD, MPH
8:15 – 8:45am	Why Overdose Prevention Matters to the Public’s Health – Raven Hoopes, National Harm Reduction Coalition
8:45 – 9:15am	Brain Science of Addiction – Andrew Herring, MD, CA Bridge
9:15 – 10:30am	Treatment with a Public Health Lens – Aimee Moulin, MD, CA Bridge, Andrew Herring, MD, CA Bridge
10:30am	Break
10:45 – 12:00pm	Panel - Surveillance Stimulating Action: Data, Equity, and Addiction – Mary Maddux-Gonzalez, MD, MPH, moderator, Sohyun Park, PHD, Branch Chief of the Epidemiology and Surveillance, NCIPC, CDC, Janneiry Garcia, MA, PH Analyst, Overdose Response Strategy CDPH, Luke Bergmann, PhD, San Diego County
12:00pm	Lunch
1:00 – 2:15pm	Panel - What Local Jurisdictions are Doing: Innovation and Best Practices – Karen Relucio, MD, moderator, Vanessa Lara, EMSBUP Project Manager, Contra Costa County, David Ghilarducci, MD, FACEP, Santa Cruz County, Michael Sequeira, MD, San Bernardino County
2:15 – 2:30pm	Wrap-up – Carmen Nevarez, MD, MPH
6:00 – 7:00pm	Group Dinner - Regency Ballroom

Agenda:
Friday, September 27

Opioids Through a Population Health Lens

7:00 – 8:00am	Breakfast
8:00 – 8:45am	Opening: Moving Health Equity into Focus – Charles Hawthorne, MPH, Equity and Organizational Development Consultant
8:45 – 10:00am	Panel – Harm Reduction in Action: Policies and Practices – Carmen Nevarez, moderator, MD, MPH, Laura Guzman, JD, National Harm Reduction Coalition Executive Director, James Wilson, Harm Reduction Specialist CDPH, John Zweifler, MD, MPH, Medical Consultant Fresno County Dept of Public Health
10:00am	Break
10:15 – 11:15am	How Opioid Settlement Funds Can Secure Sustainability – Christine Minhee, JD, Founder, Opioid Settlement Tracker
11:15 – 12:00pm	Policy Overview – Jeanette Zanipatin, JD
12:00pm	Adjourn

CME Objectives:

1. After attending this activity learners will meet the 8 DEA credit licensure requirements in California for opioid education.
2. After attending this activity learners will act within their health departments to support opioid prevention.
3. After attending this activity learners will be able to communicate effectively about harm reduction using an equity lens.

Complete the Final Survey for CME Credit:

<https://www.tinyurl.com/HOACFALL24>